Septuagesima

"With Septuagesima begins the Pre-Lenten season, which comprises Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima Sundays. These three weeks form a transition from the joy of Christmastide to the austerity of the Penitential Season of Lent. This is the Season when the Church most earnestly invites her children to prepare properly for the Feast of Christ's Glorious Resurrection. She urges them to rise from and to expiate their sins; to practice prayer and charity with greater zeal; to become indeed new men through God's grace. From Septuagesima to Holy Saturday the 'Alleluia' as well as the 'Gloria in excelsis' are omitted in 'Masses of the Season.' Purple vestments are used to signify penance."

Mass Propers

Introit: Adore God, all you His angels: Sion hears and is glad, and the cities of Juda rejoice. The Lord is King; let the earth rejoice; let the many isles be glad.

Collect: O God, You Who know that our human frailty cannot stand fast against the great dangers that beset us, grant us health of mind and body, that with your help we may overcome what we suffer on account of our sins.

Epistle: (Rom 13:8-10) Brethren: Owe no man anything except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the Law. For You shall not commit adultery. You shall not kill. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness. You shall not covet; and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no evil to a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the Law.

Gradual: The nations shall revere Your name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Your glory. V. For the Lord has rebuilt Sion, and He shall appear in His glory. Alleluia, alleluia. The Lord is King; let the earth rejoice; let the many isles be glad. Alleluia.

Gospel: (Matt 8:23-27) At that time, Jesus got into a boat, and His disciples followed Him. And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves; but He was asleep. So they came and woke Him, saying, Lord, save us! we are perishing! But He said to them, Why are you fearful, O you of little faith? Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the sea, and there came a great calm. And the men marveled, saying, What manner of Man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?

Offertory: The right hand of the Lord has struck with power: the right hand of the Lord has exalted me; I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

Secret: Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the offering of this sacrifice may always cleanse and strengthen the weakness of our nature.

Communion: All marveled at the words that came from the mouth of God.

Post Communion: May Your gifts, O God, free us from the attraction of earthly pleasures and give us new strength through Your heavenly nourishment.

Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary

February 2

According to Mosaic Law, a mother who had given birth to a son remained unclean for 40 days after birth, in which time she completed her purification in blood. After the 40 days, the new mother was to "bring to the temple a lamb for a holocaust and a young pigeon or turtle dove for sin" (Leviticus 12), where a priest prayed for her and she was cleansed.

Mary complied with this precept of the Mosaic Law, and redeemed Our Lord from the temple according to the law established by God, "Whatsoever is firstborn of all flesh, which they offer to the Lord, whether it be of men, or of beasts, shall belong to thee: only for the firstborn of man thou shalt take a price, and every beast that is unclean thou shalt cause to be redeemed..." (Numbers 18) In this act, Mary's Immaculate Heart is pierced with a sword of sorrow by the prophecy of Simeon.
