

Our Lady of Mount Carmel - July 16

"The slopes of Carmel, a high ridge that runs down the eastern coast of the Mediterranean Sea at the altitude of Galilee, are dotted with numerous natural caves, beloved by hermits. The most famous of these men of God was the great Prophet Elijah, who in the ninth century before Christ strenuously defended the purity of faith in the one true God from contamination by idolatrous cults. Inspired by the figure of Elijah, the contemplative order of Carmelites arose. It is a religious family that counts among its members great saints such as Teresa of Avila, John of the Cross, Thérèse of the Child Jesus and Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein). The Carmelites have spread among the Christian people devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, holding her up as a model of prayer, contemplation and dedication to God. Indeed, Mary was the first, in a way which can never be equaled, to believe and experience that Jesus, the Incarnate Word, is the summit, the peak of man's encounter with God.

By fully accepting the Word, she "was blessedly brought to the holy Mountain" (cf. Opening Prayer of the Memorial), and lives for ever with the Lord in body and soul... May Mary help every Christian to find God in the silence of prayer." Benedict XVI on July 15, 2006

"Devotion to the Carmel Scapular has brought a copious descent of rain of spiritual and temporal graces to the whole world" (Pius XII, 1950).

It is evident that the Virgin Mary wants to reveal the scapular to us in a special way. Lucia (visionary from Fatima) reports that in the last apparition (October, 1917), the Virgin appeared dressed in the Carmelite habit and with a scapular in her hand; she wanted to remind us, that her true children would wear it with reverence. She also asked that those who are consecrated to her would wear it as a symbol of this consecration.

Prayer to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

Oh Virgin Mary, Mother of God and Mother of sinners, special protector of those who wear your sacred scapular, His Divine Majesty exalted you, choosing you as His Mother, I beg you to obtain for me from your beloved Son, the forgiveness of my sins, the grace to amend my life, the salvation of my soul, the remedy to my needs, consolation in my afflictions and the special grace that I ask for in this novena, if it is for His greater honor and glory and good for my soul; my Lady, to obtain it I rely on your powerful intercession. I desire to have the spirit of the angels, saints, and righteous ones in order to praise you worthily and uniting my voice with their affections, I greet you now and forever saying: Three Hail Mary's.

Blessed Virgin of Mt. Carmel, I desire that all, without exceptions would take refuge in the protective shadow of your Holy Scapular and that all would be united to you my Mother.

Oh Beauty of Carmel! Look at us kneeling reverently before your holy image and grant us your loving protection. I commend to you the needs of our Holy Father the Pope, of the Catholic Church our Mother, and the needs of my nation and all nations in the world, my own needs and that of all my relatives and friends. Look with eyes of mercy on so many poor sinners, heretics and schematics, how they offend your Divine Son and so many unfaithful how they moan in the darkness of paganism. That all may convert and love you, my Mother, as I desire to love you, now and for all eternity. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

• The office will be open fewer hours on Wednesdays and Thursdays this month. Please call ahead or plan your office business for Mondays or Tuesdays.

• On July 17, enrollment in the Brown Scapular will take place after each Mass for the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Scapulars will be available or you may bring your own.

• There will be NO coffee and donuts during July. You are welcome to gather in the hall after Mass with your own refreshments. Please leave the hall as clean or cleaner than you found it. Last week the hall was left very clean. Thank you!

• This month's $100 drawing for the 400 Club will take place this Wednesday, July 13. Be sure your tickets are returned with your payment so you are included in the drawing!

• Please help sell tickets for the 400 Club! This is our parish fundraiser and annual dinner with prizes. Do you know someone who would be interested in winning $10,000? Only 4 tickets are available and we need your help to sell them!

• Norwex Party/Fundraiser - in the church hall on August 20 at 10:30 and 2:00. Drawings and prizes! Coffee and cookies! See Mary Elizabeth in the office for a catalogue and more information.

• Due to rising costs, we have increased the suggested donation for devotional candles. We ask that you contribute $4 for the large, 7-day candles.

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

PRAYER INTENTIONS

Please pray for the sick, our deceased parishioners, and those who are not able to receive the sacraments.

• Faithful Departed: Mary Rappach †

• Sick or Recovering: Donette Wanen, Mike Vesco, Leonard Nethers, Dr. Damiani, Steve Fuller, Eugenia Sanders, Daniel Corrado, Janice Reardon, Louise Glassburner, Paula Conti

If you are home-bound, please let Fr. Fongemie know how you are doing. If your absence is a prolonged one or if your illness is serious, he will try to visit. Fr. Fongemie's cell: (785) 840-8202

JULY 10, 2022 - FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT: Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to thee: be thou my helper, forsake me not, nor do Thou despise me, O God, my Savior. (Psalm) The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

COLLECT: O God, who hast prepared invisible good things for those that love Thee: pour into our hearts such a sense of Thy love, that we, loving Thee in all, and above all, may obtain Thy promises, which exceed all out desire

EPISTLE: (1 Peter 13:8-15) Dearly beloved, Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, being lovers of the brotherhood, merciful, modest, humble: not rendering evil for evil, nor railing for railing, but contrariwise, blessing: for unto this you are called; that you may inherit a blessing. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile. Let him decline from evil, and do good: let him seek after peace, and, pursue it: because the eyes of the Lord are upon the just, and his ears unto their prayers: but the countenance of the Lord upon them that do evil, things. And, who is he that can, hurt you, if you: be zealous of good? But if also you suffer any thing for, justice' sake, blessed are ye. And be not afraid of their fear, and be not troubled: but sanctify the Lord Christ, in your hearts.

How should we sanctify the Lord in our hearts?

By practicing those virtues which Peter here recommends, and which he so exactly describes; for thereby we become true disciples of Christ, honor Him and edify others, who by our good example are led to admire Christianity, and to become His followers. Moreover, we thus render ourselves more worthy of God's grace and protection, so that if for justice' sake we are persecuted by, wicked men, we need not fear, because God is for us and will reward us with eternal happiness.

ASPIRATION: O good Saviour, Jesus Christ, grant that I may make Thy virtues my own; especially Thy humility, patience, mercy, and love; grant that I may practice them diligently, that I may glorify Thee, sanctify myself, and thus become worthy of Thy protection.

GOSPEL: (Matt. 5:20-24) At that time, Jesus said to his disciples: Except your justice abound more than that of the Scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to them of old: Thou shalt not kill: and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say to you, that whosoever is angry with his brother, shall be in danger of the judgment. And whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council. And whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. If therefore, thou bring thy gift at the altar, and there thou remember that thy brother hath anything against thee, leave there thy offering before the altar, and go first to be reconciled to thy brother: and then coming, thou shalt offer thy gift.

In what did the justice of the Pharisees consist?

In external works of piety, in the avoidance of such gross vices as could not be concealed, and would have brought them to shame and disgrace. But in their hearts these Pharisees cherished evil, corrupt inclinations and desires, pride, envy, avarice, and studied malice and vengeance. Jesus, therefore, called them hypocrites, whitened sepulchers, and St. John calls them a brood of vipers. True Justice consists not only in external works of piety, that is, devotional works, but especially in a pure, sincere, self-sacrificing feeling towards God and man; without this all works, however good, are only a shell without a kernel.

ASPIRATION: O God, strike me not with the blindness of the Pharisees that, like them, I may seek to please man by my works, and thus be deprived of eternal reward. Banish from my heart all sinful anger, and give me a holy zeal in charity that I may be anxious only for Thy honor and for the salvation of my neighbor. Grant me also that I may offend no one, and willingly forgive those who have offended me, thus practicing true Christian justice, and become agreeable to Thee.
